

Please leave the satalite services alone. I pay for the information I receive, and should have the right to hear the weather, traffic, etc...should I choose or need to. I know many truckers need this important information as well, and have chosen satalite radio, as it is difficult in driving through many locations to know what stations to listen to for updated information.